

Marin Onstage presents: The Mystery of Edwin Drood

Book, Music, Lyrics by Rupert Holmes, Directed by Patrick Nims
March 9 - 31, 2018 at the Belrose Theatre

It is 1870 in Chesterham, England. The young and charming Edwin Drood is betrothed to the delightful Rosa Bud. However, her choirmaster, John Jasper, is smitten with his charge as well. Sparks fly when people in the town let their emotions come out regarding the whole affair. Suddenly, Edwin Drood disappears and everyone is suspected of foul play.

This "Triple Crown" (Best Musical, Best Book, and Best Score) Tony winner of 1986 is a hilarious, interactive, whodunit mystery musical that allows the audience to enter the action and become the ultimate detectives.

Join The Music Hall Royale, a Ladies Dramatic Society, as they present Charles Dickens', THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD! Because Dickens "ungenerously" died before finishing his novel, you, the audience will be asked to vote upon key questions, including the identity of the murderer. It's the only show in town that ends differently every night, depending on what the audience decides.

Things are not as they appear on stage or in the small town of Chesterham, England, the young and charming Edwin Drood has been mysteriously murdered. But by whom? His leering, romantic rival, John Jasper? His lovely and innocent fiancé, Rosa Bud? The infamous purveyor of opium and vice, Princess Puffer? Or someone else even more dastardly and villainous? The giddy playfulness of this play-within-a-play draws the audience toward a most unusual and hilarious finale!

Directed by Patrick Nims, music directed by Daniel Savio, choreographed by Kate Kenyon.
